On St. Valentino's evening, at White Hall, Ill., a masquerade ball was given in honor of Miss Frances Arnold of Mendon. Ill., by Mr. and Mrs. R. Vernon Clark of White Hall. There were many beautiful costumes, representing various fictitioss and historical personages. The host and hosters represented George and Martha Washinston in their handsomest days, while Miss Arnold appeared in a fetching colonial gown.

mentioned as one of the events of the week.

Both vocal and instrumental music formed the programme, and among the numbers was the playing of the harp by Mrs. Julius Walsh, which was especially enjoyed, as was also the soprano solos rendered by the hostess.

The guests were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—

Edith Nugent of New York. G. Gilmore.

Brantner Finney, Willis Linneman, H. Kerns, Guy Clark.

The musical to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Medart, No. 1729 Missouri avenue, Tuesday evening, will be one of the important social affairs of the closing season. The Castle Square Opera Company has been drawn on very liberally to furnish music for the entertainment, and the programme will be rich indeed with so many professionals to take part. Miss Maude Lillian Berri, Joseph Sheehan, Miss Ludwig, Mrs. Oscar Bollman, Homer Moore, James Rohan, John Rohan, Miss Jeannette McClanahan, Miss Kunkel and Alfred Robyn will be the artists of the evening. Joseph Buse has arranged the programme. Cards to the number 250 have been sent out. The Medart ballroom on the third floor will be used for the concert, and will be elaborately decorated.
